TREK 2017 IS LESS THAN 2 WEEKS AWAY, AND CUT-A-RAMA IS NEARLY UPON US!

The Trek will kick off in fine style on Saturday night 3rd June with help from the wonderful people from Just Cuts. They will be travelling from all over Australia to be on hand for the traditional Cut-A-Rama, and if you have been saving yourself for a cut, style, colour, shave or wax you, you will not be disappointed.

Even if you haven't been letting your hair grow, you can still front up and maybe get those pesky eyebrows done, maybe trim a nostril or three, or your ears? Perhaps you have thought of getting your car number tattooed in your hair?

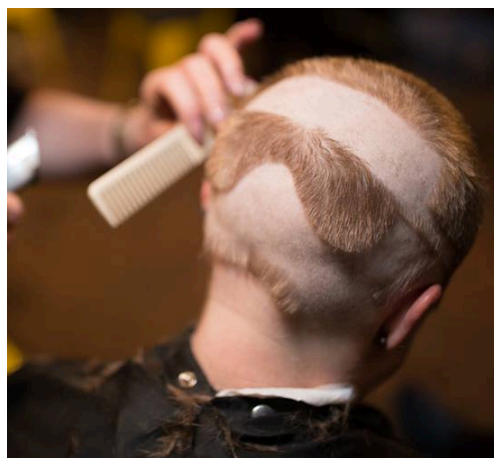

Why do Just Cuts do it?

"This is the 19th year of Cut-A-Rama, an event that we're extremely proud to put on for all Outback Car Trek participants and the local community", says Denis McFadden, CEO and founder of Just Cuts™ and dedicated Outback Car Trek trekker.

"The Royal Flying Doctor Service of Australia is a charity that has always been very close to my heart because of the huge impact they make on so many people across Australia. Through Cut-A-Rama, we can raise even more funds for this fantastic charity", adds McFadden.

"Cut-A-Rama is just one small part of our ongoing commitment to the Royal Flying Doctor Service of Australia. Every Just Cuts™ salon in Australia receives a donation box for the charity, which is displayed on reception counters all year round, with Clients, Team Members and Owners alike donating their loose change to the cause".

TREK REGISTRATIONS FROM FIVE O'CLOCK

Trek registrations will be held at the "Vic Hotel" in Banna griffith from 5:00 pm on Saturday, but of course the hotel is open much earlier if you want to get in and form a queue. They have a wide selection of beer and wine, and great bistro, at The Vic.

Come along, pick up your road books, name tags, etc. and catch up with old friends. Get the latest goss on the route, and enjoy the hospitality of Terry and his crew.

And don't forget to get into the swing of the week with a wax or a haircut or two?

YARRAN WINES WILL BE AT THE VIC

Yarran Wines is a family-owned business happy to support the RFDS, and they will be on hand at Cut-A-Rama to provide some wine tasting samples, plus have for sale bottled wine at discounted prices. (They have also donated wine for our Lightning Ridge auction.) Their winemaker will be at The Vic on Saturday evening to share with you some of the secrets of their award winning wines. The winery is located a short distance from Yenda, on the outskirts of Griffith and has a long tradition of winemaking dating back to 1913.

If you are getting into town early, drop in to see them at 178 Myall Park Rd Yenda, and thank them for their support of the RFDS.

Renowned for producing high quality wines, fruit has been grown on the family vineyard for 35 years, and the winery produces many different varietal table wines, rich fortified blends and also a classic Riverina Botrytis sweet wine style (Noble rot).

SOCIAL MEDIA HASHTAGS

A focus point of the film & photo crews, and the RFDS Media people this year, will be to increase the spread of the good word of the RFDS & the Trek by way of increased social media presence. Telstra are on board by providing upload capability in as many places as possible throughout the week. To allow us to gain maximum exposure for the RFDS and the Trek, will everybody please use the #rfdstrek hash-tag when posting to social media.

TREK MERCHANDISE

Later in this edition of Trek Tripe is the selection of merchandise available for purchase this year. You can have them delivered to you before the Trek, or you can pre-order and pick them up at registrations in Griffith.

We are very low on certain sizes in some items; get in now before you miss out!

CHEMIST OUTLET DONATES THE WATER AGAIN

Once again this year, Chemist Outlet has donated a pallet of water for you to buy at the start line in return for a donation to the Flying Doctor.

I know it's hard once you get your safety harness on, and everything is packed away, but make sure you have your wallet handy so you can buy a blister pack of water before you hit the dusty road.

Thanks to Niels Bowen and the Team at Chemist Outlet.

ALSO AT THE START LINE.....

Griffith Lions Club is putting on the breakfast for us, and that helps them raise lots of money for a large number of good causes locally. They have asked if it is OK to run a raffle at the start line, and of course we said yes.

Whilst you have your wallet out to buy the water in aid of the RFDS, also help out by buying a raffle ticket or three – only $10 each and all of the money raised will go to the Multiple Sclerosis Australia people.

SMOKING AT THE START LINE

There is a lot of interest from Trekkers in the Ceremony, and we have invited in the Elders of the local Wiradjuri tribe to perform the ceremony for us.

To take part, at the Trek start line ask one of the officials where to line up.

TELL YOUR MOTHER WHERE YOU WILL BE

This vital piece of information will look just great on anybody's fridge door, and the chart is a little later in the newsletter.

FUEL DISTANCES

The fuel matrix is also a little later in the newsletter – no really long distances this year – 434 kms is the longest stretch.

ENNGONIA IS PUTTING ON MORNING TEA

Page 4
Enngonia Public School Newsletter	28 th April 2017

RFDS Car Rally

Wednesday 7th June 10am-11am we will be catering for approximately 200 people.

We will need helpers to

- make quiche, sandwiches, cakes, biscuits and slices
- make up packs on the day
- donate items for a hamper raffle (local products etc.)

We will have a quick meeting on Wednesday 10th May after the Mother's Day & Cake Stall.

HELPERS NEEDED

We found this in the school newsletter, so now we know what's on the menu. The kids are raising money for an all weather shade cloth for their playground, buy a raffle ticket and you might just win a hamper of local products ☺

ARE YOUR PAYMENTS UP TO DATE?

Please make sure that all of your payments, including disbursements, entry fees, donations, are brought up to date this week. Please don't leave it until next week.

CEVA CAR CARRYING

We will be working with CEVA and council this week as to where the truck pick up point will be in relation to the finish line. Please make sure you have your car booked in with CEVA if you are trucking her home. Forms are at the end of this newsletter.

INDEMNITY FORMS

Make sure you have returned your signed indemnity forms, and help save a potential log jam on registrations night. If you send them in after this Friday 26th May, they won't be logged into our database, and will slow everything down.

DOOR PANELS

Door Panels were posted early last week, and I think everybody should now be covered. If you haven't got yours after you have checked today's mail – let me know.

WE HAVE A FEW VIRGIN CARS THIS YEAR

So please go out of your way to make them welcome, and ease them into Trek life.

If you know of anybody who might enjoy the Trek, please let them know that the event is open to people of all shapes and sizes, and encourage them to make contact and find out what the Trek is all about, and how easy it is to be part of the fun.

FINAL NIGHT BUSES

Don't forget, if you are staying in Port Macquarie town proper, we have shuttle buses to get you to & from Panthers for the final night dinner. The buses will perform a sweep of the main accommodation precinct, and we will tell you the pick up points in the road book. All you have to do is get yourself to the closest pick up point. If you are staying off the beaten track, you will need to arrange your own transport.

PORT MACQUARIE LUNCH SUNDAY 11TH JUNE

Rydges, and the Beach House Hotel, neighboring establishments right on the water in downtown Port Macquarie, will be running a "revival lunch" for Trekkers and their friends on the Sunday of the long weekend. Rydges will donate (a large) part of the takings to the RFDS. Thanks Rydges Port Macquarie.

RYDGES
HOTELS • RESORTS

They need to know how much space to reserve for our group, so please let me know if you will be able to join us.

I have so far only around 35 people who have registered interest, so let me know if you are able to come to lunch on Sunday.

FOOD, GLORIOUS FOOD...

I have had only one person advise me of any dietary requirements during the week, and only four people for the final night dinner, which is a little surprising. If you have any dietary requirements please drop me a line to let me know.

AUCTION ITEMS

We have some wonderful items for the auction this year, but we have one small problem:

WE DON'T HAVE ENOUGH ITEMS

Please see what you can do to come up with some good quality items to donate. The styles of things that bring good money includes accommodation prizes – vouchers, etc. restaurant vouchers, golf play & stay, travel, and grog, grog, and grog.

As we have noted in the past couple of newsletters, a couple of truly exceptional items have been donated, and the list is growing:

Mark Crandon from Car #86 is working hard to corner the Australian drone market with his company www.dronezone.com.au and has donated a DJI Mavic Pro drone, coupled with a set of four professionally framed photos taken from your drone on the 2017 Trek.

"How does it work" I hear you ask?

Simple - you buy the drone on the Trek, fly it around a little bit (trust me, this brand of drone is foolproof – no skill required) taking film and photos, and Mark will use your pick of the best photos to create a set for you to hang at home, and perhaps give some to sponsors and supporters.

Mark advises this package is valued at $4,000 so spend up big in aid of the RFDS.

Sandbox Media have donated a $25,000 oOH! Media package for auction on the Trek – more details at the end of this newsletter.

CORPORATES, SANDBOX MEDIA IS THE AGENCY
FOR FOR YOU! !

<http://www.sandboxmedia.com.au/>

On the subject of Auction Night, whilst typing this newsletter I was talking to Murray Hartin, a great mate who many Trekkers will remember from a few years back.

When he first heard the 2017 Trek was coming to his neck of the woods, Murray volunteered himself to come to Dirranbandi on the Thursday night to entertain us. When I mentioned last night we had our auction night at Lightning Ridge on the Wednesday night, he offered to come to Lightning Ridge as well.

He said something about being thirsty.

As well as spinning us a couple of yarns at Auction Night Murray will donate a personal poem as an auction item.

It's a simple process. You give Murray a profile of what you want the poem to be about, and he employs his wonderful communicative skills to give you back your own personalised and framed poem a few weeks later! The subject matter is up to you.

Yet another bloke who said he'd do anything for The Doctor.

Onya Muzz.
